

OTF will cover:

- release time for February 27, 2009
- the most economical mode of transportation
- double occupancy accommodation, if required
- meals at the conference

OTF will not supply computers for the workshops. Participants are required to bring a laptop for their own personal use.

Please note that we have allocated a specific number of registrations for each Affiliate. When you register, if you receive a message saying that spaces for your Affiliate have been filled, please place your name on the waiting list. We will notify you as soon as possible if spaces become available.
